GENERAL MEETINGS

6. The Association shall hold a General Meeting in every calendar year as its Annual General Meeting at such time and place as may be determined by the Association and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, provided that every Annual General Meeting except the first shall be held not more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding Annual General Meeting, and that so long as the Association holds its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen months after its incorporation it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year.
7. All Meetings, other than Annual General Meetings, shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
8. The Management Committee may whenever they think fit convene a General Meeting, and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be

- convened on such requisition, or in default may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by section 368 of the Act.
9. Twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least of every Annual General Meeting and of every meeting convened to pass a Special Resolution, and fourteen days notice in writing at the least of every other General Meeting (exclusive in every case both of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given), specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting, and in the case of special business the general nature of that business, shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons (including the Auditors) as are under these presents or under the Act entitled to receive such notices from the Association; but with the consent of all the members having the right to attend and vote thereat, or of such proportion of them as is prescribed by the Act in the case of meetings other than Annual General Meetings, a meeting may be convened by such notice as those members may think fit.
 10. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate any resolution passed, or proceeding at any meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

11. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall also be deemed special, with the exception of the consideration of the income and expenditure account and balance sheet, and the reports of the Management Committee and of the Auditors, the election of members of the Management Committee in the place of those retiring, and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the Auditors.
12. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided 3 or 1/3 (whichever is the greater number) of the members shall be a quorum.
13. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. 15. The Chairwoman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, the members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
 16. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is, before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, demanded by the Chairwoman or by at least three members present in person and representing one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting, and unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the Chairwoman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution. VOTES OF MEMBERS

21. Subject as hereinafter provided, every member shall have one vote.

22. Save as herein expressly provided, no member other than a member duly registered, who shall have paid every subscription and other sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Association in respect of her membership, shall be entitled to vote on any question at any General Meeting.

24. The first members of the Management Committee shall be the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association.
25. The Management Committee may from time to time and at any time appoint any member of the Association as a member of the Management Committee, either to fill a casual vacancy or by way of addition to the Management Committee, provided that the prescribed maximum be not thereby exceeded. Any member so appointed shall retain her office only until the next Annual General Meeting, but she shall then be eligible for re-election.
26. No person who is not a member of the Association shall in any circumstances be eligible to hold office as a member of the Management Committee.

POWERS OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

27. The business of the Association shall be managed by the Management Committee who may pay all such expenses of, and preliminary and incidental to, the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of the Association as they think fit, and may exercise all such powers of the Association, and do on behalf of the Association all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Association, and as are not by statute or by these presents required to be exercised or done by the Association in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulations of these presents, to the provisions of the statutes for the time being in force and affecting the Association, and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions, as may be prescribed by the Association in General Meeting, but no regulation made by the Association in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Management Committee which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

 34. The Association may, at the meeting at which a member of the Management Committee retires in manner aforesaid, fill up the vacated office by electing a person thereto, and in default the retiring member shall, if offering herself for re-election, be deemed to have been re-elected, unless at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacated office, or unless a resolution for the re-election of such a member shall have been put to the meeting and lost.
 35. No person not being a member of the Management Committee retiring at the meeting shall, unless recommended by the Management Committee for election, be eligible for election to membership of the Management Committee at any General Meeting, unless within the prescribed time before the day appointed for the meeting there shall have been given to the Secretary notice in writing, by some member duly qualified to be present and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given, of her intention to propose such person to be proposed of her willingness to be elected. The prescribed time above mentioned shall be such that, between the date when the notice is served, or deemed to be served, and the day appointed for the meeting there shall be not less than four nor more than twenty-eight intervening days.
 36. The Association may from time to time in General Meeting increase the number of members of the Management Committee, and determine in what rotation such increased number shall go out of office, and may make the appointments necessary for effecting any such increase.
 37. In addition and without prejudice to the provisions of section 303 of the Act, the Association may by Extraordinary Resolution remove any member of the Management Committee before the expiration of her period of office and may by an Ordinary Resolution appoint another qualified member in her stead; but any person so appointed shall retain her office so long only as the member in whose place she is appointed would have held the same if she had not been removed.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

38. The Management Committee may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business, provided that the quorum for meetings of the Management Committee

Any such Committees shall report to the Management Committee on any decisions taken.
 43. All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Management Committee or of any committee of the Management Committee, or by any person acting as a member of the Management Committee, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such member or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified to be a member of the Management Committee.
 44. The Management Committee shall cause proper minutes to be made of all appointments of officers made by the Management Committee and of the proceedings of all meetings of the Association and of the Management Committee and of committees of the Management Committee, and all business transacted at such meetings, and any such minutes of any meeting, if purporting to be signed by the Chairwoman of such meeting, or by the Chairwoman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.
