

women's design groups

Open evening

Weds 27th October, 4.00-6.30pm

Tindlemanor, 52-54 Featherstone Street, London EC1Y 8RT

Open to existing group members, and women interested in joining, or becoming volunteers

Join us for drinks and nibbles and meet Amy Kennedy, our new Project Manager, on this exciting London Councils-funded project which aims to get more women involved in planning

To book your free place email hcarty@wds.org.uk or call 020 7490 5210 giving any dietary or access needs

Women's Design Service are setting up women's design groups across London to: Articulate women's needs in the built environment
Engage with planning application and policy consultations Become influential and recognised groups within the planning system

